

Lecturer's name:		Date:
Course: ELA 7		Duration:
Unit: 2B (Poetry)		TEKS:
	7.1C	• 7.2A	• 7.2B	• 7.2C	• 7.5A	• 7.5B
Lesson objectives:	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to give an organized presentation with a specific stance and position, employing eye contact, speaking rate, volume, enunciation, natural gestures, and conventions of language to communicate ideas effectively. Students will use this information to present a critique of a poem of their choice.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to use print or digital resources to determine the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of a word. Students will use this information to look up the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of words from a poem of their choosing.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to use context within or beyond a paragraph to clarify the meaning of unfamiliar or ambiguous words. Students will use this information to create a presentation on one of the ways context clues can be used.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to determine the meaning and usage of grade-level academic English words derived from Greek and Latin roots. Students will use this information to create a quizlet.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to establish a purpose for reading assigned and self-selected texts. Students will use this information to create a PSA about the importance of reading poetry.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to generate questions about text before, during, and after reading to deepen understanding and gain information. Students will use this information to generate questions before, during and after reading the poem "Casey at the Bat" by Ernest Thayer
Essential Questions:	Essential Questions: What are some important tools to give an effective presentation?	Essential Questions: How can you discover the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of words?	How can you use context clues to help you determine the meaning of a word?	What commonly used words have Greek and Latin roots? How can you identify Greek and Roman roots?	Why is it important to read poetry? What different genres can be found in poetry?	What are some questions you can generate before reading Casey at the Bat ? What are some questions you can generate while reading Casey at the Bat ?

						What are some questions you can generate after reading Casey at the Bat
LYS Metho dology Be (Charac ter/Val ues/Pri nciples) Know (What resourc es are availabl e to the student / How can they use them) - Do (Execut e with Excell ence) -	Be: What is humility? Know: How can you build productive habits at work? Do: What are some simple ways of managing your resources?	Be: What do you think understanding means in social settings? Know: What chants can you use to help you get through the day? Do: What are some ways that you can be dedicated to your job but still maintain a life outside of work?	Be: What does it mean to be fulfilled? Know: What are some ways you can ask for help? Do: What can you do to develop your resilience?	Be: What do you think workplace discipline means? Know: What are some ways you can use your spirituality to assist the well being of people around you? Do: How can you develop trust with someone you don't know?	Be: What do you think it means for cultures to be connected? Know: What factors shape your identity? Do: If you face a cultural barrier, how can you overcome it?	Be: What does it mean to collaborate? Know: What factors can prevent you from living a balanced life? Do: How can you use applications on your phone and/or tablet to change your bad habits?
Resourc es (Includ e Technol ogy):	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Dictionary Skills https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=graMoiXc_gE&ab_channel=LearnwithSocrates	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Reading Comprehension 8 Types of Context Clues to Be a Better Reader https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1hmJZh74qFw Activity Presentation Software	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Greek and Latin Roots Intro https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gVDITVFzRyY&ab_channel=KealyJaynes Activity Quizlet.com (students will have to create a login)	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Stephen Burt: Why people need poetry https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=08ZWROqoTZo Activity Audio or Video recording app (Phone laptop, tablet, etc)	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Asking Questions Before, During, and After Reading https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tKsWRm1NQzo&ab_channel=JenniferJohnson "Casey at the Bat" by Ernest Thayer https://poets.org/poem/casey-bat

			(PowerPoint, Google Slides, etc)			Activity Word Processor
Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) M: Modeling (I do) GP: Guided Practice (We do)	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will give a TEDTalk on their independent reading.	AS: Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner how students can use print or digital resources to determine the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of a word. M: Students will watch a video on how to determine the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of a word. GP: Have students read a poem of their choosing. As they read the poem, have students look up the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of a word on the ist.	AS: Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner how they can use information in a text to figure out the meaning of unfamiliar words. M: Students will watch a video on context clues. GP: Ask students how they might explain context clues to a student younger than them. Inform students that they are to create a presentation designed to educate students in the grades below them on how to use context clues.	AS: Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, about Greek and Roman roots they are familiar with. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Students will watch a video on Greek and Roman roots. GP: Give students the list of Greek and Latin roots. Split students into groups of 2 or three and assign each group a page from the list of Greek and Latin roots. From there, each group will create a quizlet based on their assigned list of words. The quizlet should contain the root, some english words that use the roots, and the definition of the root.	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Instructor will ask the students to share the names of poems and poets they are familiar with. Once students have shared their responses, ask them if they think it is important to read poetry. Then, have students watch a TEDTalk on why it is important to read poetry. GP: Ask students why they think it is important for people to read poetry. Inform students that they are to create a 30 second PSA explaining why it is important for people to read poetry.	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Students will watch a video on how to ask questions before, during, and after reading. GP: Introduce the poem "Casey at the Bat". Before the class begins reading, have the students write down a minimum of three questions they have about the story. Then have the students read the story as a class. As the students read the story, have them write down at least three questions. Once the class has finished the story, have the students write down at least three questions they still have.

Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) M: Modeling (I do) GP: Guided Practice (We do)	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes.	AS: Students will discuss with a partner how students can use print or digital resources to determine the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of a word. M: Instructor will lecture on how to determine the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of a word. GP: GP: Have students read a poem of their choosing. As they read the poem, have students look up the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of a word on the ist.	AS: Students will discuss with a partner how they can use information in a text to figure out the meaning of unfamiliar words. M: Instructor will lecture on context clues. GP: Ask students how they might explain context clues to a student younger than them. Inform students that they are to create a presentation designed to educate students in the grades below them on how to use context clues.	AS: Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, about Greek and Roman roots they are familiar with. M: Students will watch a video on Greek and Roman roots. GP: Give students the list of Greek and Latin roots. Split students into groups of 2 or three and assign each group a page from the list of Greek and Latin roots. From there, each group will create a quizlet based on their assigned list of words. The quizlet should contain the root, some english words that use the roots, and the definition of the root.	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Instructor will ask the students to share the names of poems and poets they are familiar with. Once students have shared their responses, ask them if they think it is important to read poetry. Then, have students watch a TEDTalk on why it is important to read poetry. GP: Ask students why they think it is important for people to read poetry. Inform students that they are to create a 30 second PSA explaining why it is important for people to read poetry.	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Instructor will review how to ask questions before, during, and after reading. GP: Introduce the poem "Casey at the Bat". Before the class begins reading, have the students write down a minimum of three questions they have about the story. Then have the students read the story as a class. As the students read the story, have them write down at least three questions. Once the class has finished the story, have the students write down at least three questions they still have.
	Independent Practice / Homework	Students will complete their word lists.	Students will complete their presentation.	Students will complete their quizlet.	Students will complete their PSA.	Students will look up the answers to their questions.

Lesson Close	Spiritual	Social	Social	Vocational	Cultural	Financial
What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Educational? Social? Cultural? Financial? Health? Vocational? Spiritual?	Humility is generally described as freedom from pride or arrogance. Humility is important because it can help keep us grounded and can prevent us from acting in ways that might make others unhappy. Although you now know the definition of humility, what do you think it actually means to be humble? Vocational When you enter the workforce, you will be expected to utilize the skills you developed in school or through experience. However some of the skills that you will need to rely on cannot be taught in school and can only be developed through experience in the workforce. one of these skills is productivity. Productivity is something you might learn while in school such as balancing getting your work done with spending time with your friend. However, once you enter the workforce productive habits become even more important as not being productive at work can cause you to lose your job. How can you build productive habits at work? Financial Managing financial resources is a vital component of being an adult. There are a wide variety of techniques and methods you can rely on to help you manage your	Many people would say that part of interacting in a social situation draws upon many skills and concepts. What people often do not think about, is that communicating with someone requires you to understand what the person you're communicating with is trying to tell you, whether directly or indirectly. Understanding does not just refer to listening and comprehension. What do you think understanding means in social settings? Spiritual Many people rely on chants to keep themselves afloat. For some people, these chants take the form of prayers and for others the chants might take the form of a mantra, such as, " Even the longest day only has 24 hours." Think about your life-what chants can you use to	People find fulfillment through all sorts of methods-including reading. Some people, on the other hand, find fulfillment through spending time with their friends. What does it mean to be fulfilled? Education . In school, if you are struggling, you need to be able to ask for help on your own. Asking your teachers can help you fix all sorts of situations-from struggling with the material to having trouble with a classmate. What are some ways you can ask for help? Spiritual Everyone goes through difficult periods in their life. Although you are middle school students, that doesn't mean you can't start developing your resilience. In fact, you're at the	Being an author requires a fair degree of discipline as you often work by yourself. However, workplace discipline comes in many forms-it is a necessary component of all jobs. What do you think workplace discipline means? Spiritual Many people rely heavily on their spirituality to guide the decisions in their personal lives and the lives of citizens in their county. Although you are in middle school, that doesn't mean you can't use your spirituality to help guide the decisions of people around you. What are some ways you can use your spirituality to assist the well being of people around you?	With as many cultures as there are in the world, it makes sense that some cultures might be connected. What do you think it means for cultures to be connected? Cultural Our identities are shaped by a wide variety of factors, including our cultural heritage-from the homelands of your ancestors to your spirituality. What cultural factors shape your identity? Cultural We all face cultural barriers in our lives and it is important that we overcome them safely and productively. If you face a cultural barrier, how can you overcome it?	Many of the apps we use in our daily lives, such as Facebook, Twitter, Uber and others were not created in a vacuum. Yes, they might have been invented by a few people, but in most cases those people were able to monetize their apps by collaborating financially with banks and other sources of finances. While you are probably not reliant on venture capital in order to get your app off the ground, you still probably need to be financially collaborative. What does it mean to collaborate? Health Many people today say that teenagers are addicted to their phones and aren't doing enough to keep their health in balance-such as spending time being active. Think about your own life-what factors can prevent you from living a balanced life? Health People use apps for all sorts of reasons-from communicating with others to helping them navigate their daily lives. Many people use apps to help them track diets and exercise, finances-from relying on a professional to using a budgeting app. With such a wide variety of resources at your disposal, what are some simple ways of managing your resources?	help you get through the day? Vocational Many people are dedicated to their jobs to the point of neglecting their lives outside of work. What are some ways that you can be dedicated to your job, but still maintain a life outside of work?	perfect age to start developing your resilience. What can you do to develop your resilience?	Social Many of our social interactions are dependent on trust, especially when interacting with people that we don't know or have damaged our trust in the past. How can you develop trust with someone you don't know?		productivity, and change their bad habits. Think about the apps you have on your phone and/or tablet. How can you use them to change your bad habits?

--	--	---	---	--	--	--