

Lecturer's name:		Date:
Course: ELA 7		Duration:
Unit: 2B (Drama)		TEKS:
	• 7.5A	• 7.5B	• 7.5C	• 7/5e	e7.5f	7.5g
Lesson objectives:	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to establish a purpose for reading assigned and self-selected texts. Students will use this information to create a PSA on why it is important to study dramatic works.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to generate questions about text before, during, and after reading to deepen understanding and gain information. Students will use this information to generate questions before, during and after reading the play Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to make and correct or confirm predictions using text features, characteristics of genre, and structures. Students will use this information to make and confirm predictions for Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society. Students will use this information to create a podcast exploring how Shakespeare has influenced the modern world.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to make inferences and use evidence to support understanding. Students will use this information to make inferences about Twelfth Night.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to evaluate the main ideas of a dramatic work. Students will use this information to make notes on the main idea of Twelfth Night.
Essential Questions:	Why do we still read Shakespeare?	What are some questions you can generate	What are some predictions you have for	Why is it important to read poetry?	How can we draw a connection between ourselves and drama?	How can inferences help us understand dramatic works?

		before reading What are some questions you can generate while reading What are some questions you can generate after reading	How can you confirm your predictions?	What different genres can be found in drama?
LYS Meth odolo gy Be (Char acter /Valu es/Pr incip les) - Know (Wha t resou rces are avail able to the stude nt/ How can they use them) - Do (Exec ute with	Be: What does it mean to be disciplined at work? Know: What types of degrees will you need in order to obtain a job in the careers you are interested in pursuing? Do: How can you help others become more trusting?	Be: Why do you think it is important to be resourceful when dealing with financial matters? Know: Why is it important to ask for help in school? Do: What can you do to take more pride in your work?.	Be: What does it mean to be humble? Know: What are some healthy cultural boundaries for you to adopt? Do: What are some simple ways you can stay on budget if you have to deal with unforeseen expenses?	Be: What does it mean to be open minded? Know: What are some unhealthy coping strategies for you to avoid? Do: When you are faced with the broken trust of an organization, what are some healthy ways you can react?	Be: What does it mean to cooperate at work? Know: How can you use your personal skills to make money as a side gig? Do: How can you improve your self control?	Be: How can you use your open mind to change the world? Know: How can you use purpose exercises to help you figure out your purpose in life? Do: What can you do to be more cooperative at work?

Excellence)
Resources (Include Technology):	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction The Importance of Drama: Transferable Skills https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=q3DGHtpuV28 Activity Audio or Video recording app (Phone laptop, tablet, etc)	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Asking Questions Before, During, and After Reading https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nsLD33rczFA&ab_channel=AshleighBrock Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare http://shakespeare.mit.edu/twelfth_night/full.html Activity Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Reading Strategy: Prediction https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nsLD33rczFA&ab_channel=AshleighBrock Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare http://shakespeare.mit.edu/twelfth_night/full.html Activity Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction eSpark Learning: Making Texts Reading Strategy Instructional Video https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sIDkOBb5sMk&t=17s&ab_channel=eSparkLearning There Is No Escaping Shakespeare The New York Times https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lv4fWhQbaTM Activity Audio recording app (phone, tablet, laptop, etc).	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Lesson 7 - Inferences https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=e7szJbRv9Hc&ab_channel=ToWnsendPre Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare http://shakespeare.mit.edu/twelfth_night/full.html Activity Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction What is the main idea? Reading Khan Academy https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4swFGRhQoMI Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare http://shakespeare.mit.edu/twelfth_night/full.html Activity Word Processor

Instr uctional Input - Asyn chron ous AS: Antici pator y Set (Intro ducti on) M: Mod eling (I do) GP: Guid ed Practi ce (We do)	AS: Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner the importance of reading fiction. M: Students will watch a TEDtalk on the importance of drama. GP: Ask students why it is important to read dramatic works. Then ask students if there are any benefits to reading dramatic works. Inform students that they are to research the importance and benefits of reading dramatic works. Once students complete their research, they are to create a PSA to share their research.	AS: Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner about why you should generate questions before, during, and after reading. M: Students will watch a video on generating reading questions. GP: As a class, have students read “Twelfth Night” by William Shakespeare. Inform students that at the start of each act and scene, they are to write down their predictions and at the end of each act and scene, they are to write down whether their	AS: Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner how you can make and confirm predictions using a text. M: Students will watch a video on making and confirming predictions using a text. GP: As a class, have students read “Twelfth Night” by William Shakespeare. Inform students that at the start of each act and scene, they are to write down their	Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner how a text can be connected to the world around us. M: Students will watch a video on drawing connections between literature and the world. Then students will watch a video on how Shakespeare has influenced the modern world. GP: Split students into pairs. Have them research how Shakespeare’s works have influenced the modern	AS: Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner how inferences and supporting evidence can be used to measure one’s understanding of a text. M: Students will watch the inferences video. GP: As a class, students will read “Twelfth Night” At the end of each act and scene, have students infer what they think Shakespeare is trying to say and have students turn their inferences into a	AS: Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, about how the key ideas from a text can be determined from a reading. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Students will watch a video on how to determine the main ideas from a text. GP: As a class, have the students read “Twelfth Night”. As students read the play, have them write a summary , at least a paragraph in length, of what the main idea of each scene and act they read.
--	--	---	--	---	---	--

		and scene, they are to write down the answers to their questions.	predictions were correct or not.	world. After each pair has completed their research, have them create a podcast to share the results of their research.	paragraph. (i.e. how might the events of the scene reflect real life)
Instr uctio nal Input - Sync hron ous AS: Antici pator y Set (Intro ducti on) M: Mod eling (I do) GP: Guid ed Practi ce (We do)	AS: Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner the importance of reading fiction. M: Students will watch a TEDtalk on the importance of drama. GP: Ask students why it is important to read dramatic works. Then ask students if there are any benefits to reading dramatic works. Inform students that they are to research the importance and benefits of reading dramatic works. Once students complete their research, they are to create a PSA to share their research.	AS: Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner about why you should generate questions before, during, and after reading. M: Instructor will lecture on generating reading questions. GP: As a class, have students read "Twelfth Night" by William Shakespeare	AS: Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner how you can make and confirm predictions using a text. M: Students will watch a video on making and confirming predictions using a text. GP: As a class, have students read "Twelfth Night" by William Shakespeare. Inform students that at the start of each act	Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner how a text can be connected to the world around us. M: Instructor will lecture on drawing connections. Instructor will lecture on how Shakespeare has influenced the modern world. GP: Split students into pairs.	AS: Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner how inferences and supporting evidence can be used to measure one's understanding of a text. M: Instructor will lecture on making inferences. GP: As a class, students will read "Twelfth Night" At the end of each act	AS: Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, about how the key ideas from a text can be determined from a reading. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Instructor will lecture how to determine the main ideas from a text. GP: As a class, have the students read "Twelfth Night". As students read the play, have them write a summary, at least a paragraph in length, of what the main idea of each scene and act they read.

		. Inform students that at the start of each act and scene, they are to write down the questions they have about the story. At the conclusion of each act and scene, they are to write down the answers to their questions.	and scene, they are to write down their predictions and at the end of each act and scene, they are to write down whether their predictions were correct or not.	Have them research how Shakespeare's works have influenced the modern world. After each pair has completed their research, have them create a podcast to share the results of their research.	and scene, have students infer what they think Shakespeare is trying to say and have students turn their inferences into a paragraph. (i.e. how might the events of the scene reflect real life)
Independent Practice/Homework	Students will complete their PSA.	Students are to look up the answers to their questions.		Students will complete their podcast.	Students will complete their paragraphs.	Students will complete their paragraphs.
Lesson Closure: What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of:	Vocational In school, you will learn a wide variety of skills, many of which you will utilize in the workplace. Sailors and pilots, for example, frequently rely on latitude and longitude. However, some of the skills that you need in order to succeed in the workforce, such as a sense of discipline, can not be learned from an academic lesson. What does it mean	Financial As you develop financial skills, you will learn about a wide variety of tools, techniques and methods to help you make sound financial decisions. What are the techniques you will learn is resourcefulness.	Spiritual As you go through life, you will have some successes and victories in your life. While this is normal, sometimes people let their success go to their heads, and instead of remaining humble, people become overconfident and begin to alienate the	Educational Going through life requires a certain degree of being open-minded as you are exposed to a wide variety of ideas and concepts, including some that might be different than what you. In school, you'll learn about a	Vocational Regardless of the location you pick, at work you will be part of a team. Being part of a team requires close cooperation in order to succeed. What does it mean to cooperate at work? Vocational Many people pick	Social One of the easiest ways to develop social change is by keeping an open mind and being open socially. After all one of the easiest ways to undo prejudice and dislike of others, is by keeping an open enough mind to meeting people with whom you might otherwise have differences. What are some ways you can keep an open mind socially? Once

Educational?	to be disciplined at work?	Why do you think it is important to be resourceful when dealing with financial matters?	people around them. This doesn't mean that you shouldn't celebrate your successes and achievements—just a reminder that you should remain humble in the face of success. What does it mean to be humble?	wide variety of topics and you will be exposed to new information that will require you to keep an open mind about. What does it mean to be open minded?	a career or a vacation because it will allow them to make lots of money. However, since many vocations do not pay well, many people rely on a side job in order to make some extra money. In today's world, there are lots of opportunities for people with skills to make money as a side gig—often by working freelance positions or working on commission to produce custom goods and services. How can you use your personal skills to make money as a side gig?	you develop an open mind through social interactions. How can you use your open mind to change the world?
Social?	Educational For every vocation out there, there is a degree. The type of job you want will determine the type of degree that you need. However, for most jobs you will need either an Associate's degree or a Bachelor's degree. Think about the types of careers that you are interested in, what types of degrees will you need in order to obtain a job in your chosen vocation?	Educational Nobody likes asking for help. However, learning new things can be difficult, especially if learning about them is necessary in order for you to succeed. Consequently, it is important for you to ask for help in school. Why do you think it is important to ask for help in school? What do you think are the consequences of not asking for help in school?	Social As you learn about different cultures, you will learn about the values and beliefs that are important to each culture. One of the things you'll learn about other cultures are the behaviors and ideas that specific cultures might find unacceptable. These are known as barriers. Cultural	Health Everyone deals with stress and traumatic events. Many people develop coping strategies as a way of dealing with traumatic and stressful events. However, not all of these coping strategies are healthy or beneficial, in fact some of them can make your health worse. What are some unhealthy coping	people with skills to make money as a side gig—often by working freelance positions or working on commission to produce custom goods and services. How can you use your personal skills to make money as a side gig?	Vocational Some people have figured out what career they want to pursue by the time they reach high school. However, some people struggle to pick a career and might rely on completing questionnaires or personality assessments to help them pick a career. If you are unsure about what type of career to pursue, how can you use purpose exercises to help you pick a vocation?
Financial?
Health?
Vocational?
Spiritual?

		their dream job. Some people might end up working a job we're fueled by that they don't like or don't think it's a good fit for them. Regardless of whether or not you think that your job is a good fit for you, you should still take pride in your career as all jobs are important and benefit society. If you struggle to take pride in your job, what can you do to take more pride in your work?.	barriers are not necessarily a bad thing as they are designed to look over the well-being of a culture and have often promoted the stability of a culture. Think about your own culture, what are some healthy cultural boundaries for you to adopt? Financial One of the most important financial skills you will learn is how to make a budget. What many people don't realize is that while making a budget is easy, staying on budget is hard- especially as things might pop up that you do not consider when making a budget. Consequently, as you prepare a budget, you should try to	strategies for you to avoid? Social Trust usually refers to having a belief in the character, strength or truth in someone and usually exists between two people. However, it can also exist between a person and an organization. One of the good things about living in democratic society is your ability to vote out of office if they break your trust. Sometimes the breaking of trust between a person and an organization can be over a much smaller	of self control. This might cause you to become angry, you might become upset, or you might try to fight the people who have upset you. Depending on the circumstances, losing your self-control can have serious consequences. While some people have a better grip on their self control than others, practicing good self-control habits can benefit everyone. How can you improve your self control?	the two-cooperation. Just as no society can evolve without cooperation between people trying to promote change, no workplace can survive without cooperation among its employees. Working a job requires much of the same mentality, everyone involved in an office needs to work together in order for the company to be successful. Think about your cooperative skills, what can you do to be more cooperative at work?
--	--	---	--	--	---	---

			make one that can accommodate a sudden expense. What are some simple ways you can stay on budget if you have to deal with unforeseen expenses?	issue such as a failure to provide a good or service that was agreed upon. When you are faced with the broken trust of an organization, what are some healthy ways you can react?
--	--	--	--	---	--	--