

Lecturer's name:		Date:
Course: ELA 7		Duration:
Unit: 2B (Poetry)		TEKS:
	• 7.5C	• 7.5e	• 7.5f	• 7.5g	• 7.5h	• 7.6a
Lesson objectives:	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to make and correct or confirm predictions using text features, characteristics of genre, and structures. Students will use this information to make and confirm predictions for "Casey at the Bat" by Ernest Thayer	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society. Students will use this information to write an essay explaining how a poem of their choice connects to the world around them.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to make inferences and use evidence to support understanding. Students will use this information to write a summary of "Casey at the Bat" by Ernest Thayer.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to evaluate the main ideas of a dramatic work. Students will use this information to make notes on the main idea of "Casey at the Bat" by Ernest Thayer.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to make and correct or confirm predictions using text features, characteristics of genre, and structures. Students will use this information to make and confirm predictions for "Casey at the Bat" by Ernest Thayer	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to describe a personal connection to a poem. Students will use this information to write a five paragraph essay about a poem that they have a personal connection to.
Essential Questions:	What are some predictions you have for Casey at the Bat ? How can you confirm your predictions?	How can we draw a connection between ourselves and poetry?	How can inferences help us understand poems?	How can inferences help us understand dramatic works?	What are some predictions you have for Casey at the Bat ? How can you confirm your predictions?	Why is it important to be able to draw a connection to a text?
LYS Methodology Be (Character/Values/Prior)	Be: How can you find fulfillment at work as a tool for innovation? Know: How can you use your finances to help	Be: What is educational competency? Know:	Be: What is hope? Know: How can you form a community	Be: What does it mean to make sacrifices to improve your health?	Be: What is a community? Know:	Be: What is openness? Know: What are some uncommon ways people of different cultures in your neighborhood intersect?

nciples) Know (What resources are available to the student / How can they use them) - Do (Execute with Excellence) -	persuade people to use their money for good? Do: How do you develop a strong work ethic?	What are some entry level jobs you can start holding? Do: How can you use your spirituality to help guide your self control?	around a globally visible interest? Do: What can you do to make sure you don't become over dedicated to your work?	Know: How can you figure out what your personal mission is? Do: How can you develop your educational skills through your hobbies?	How can you learn what your learning style is? Do: How can you use technology to help develop your work ethic?	Do: How can you increase your humility?
Resources (Include Technology):	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Reading Strategy: Prediction https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nsLD33rczFA&ab_channel=AshleighBrook "Casey at the Bat" by Ernest Thayer https://poets.org/poem/casey-bat Activity Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction eSpark Learning: Making Text Connections Reading Strategy Instructional Video https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sIDkOBb5sMk&t=17s&ab_channel=eSparkLearningVideos Activity A-Z Databases: poetry https://libguides.tcc.edu/az.php?q=poetry Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Lesson 6 - Inferences https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=e7szJbRv9Hc&ab_channel=TownsendPress "Casey at the Bat" by Ernest Thayer https://poets.org/poem/casey-bat Activity Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction What is the main idea? Reading Khan Academy https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4swFGRhQoMI Activity Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Activity Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Text to Self Connections https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=y-BY8J4V2rg Activity If by Rudyard Kipling https://www.poetryfoundation.org/poems/46473/if--- Word Processor

Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) M: Modeling (I do) GP: Guided Practice (We do)	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Students will watch a video on how to make and confirm predictions. After the video, introduce the poem Casey at the Bat . Ask students to write down any predictions they have about the story. Once students have written at least three predictions, read the poem as a class.	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Students will watch a video on making a personal connection to a text. GP: Ask students if they can think of any poems that they can relate to. Ask students if they can relate to the characters and events of Casey at the Bat. have students write a five paragraph essay explaining a personal connection to the characters or events of Casey at the Bat.	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Students will watch a video on how to make inferences. Afterwards, introduce "The Casey at the Bat" and then read the poem as a class. GP: After reading the poem, ask the students what they think the poem was about. I. Ask them to support their reasons. Inform students that, using inferences from the poem, they are to write a one page write up on what they think happens during the "Casey at the Bat".	AS: Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, about how the key ideas from a text can be determined from a reading. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Students will watch a video on how to determine the main ideas from a text. GP: As a class, have the students read "Casey at the Bat". As students read the play, have them write a summary , at least a paragraph in length, of what the main idea of each scene and act they read.	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will write a few sentences summarizing the various ways that a poem can be analyzed. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will pick one of the poems they read during the poetry unit, and will write a five paragraph essay analyzing the poem. Note: Students should include all of the analysis techniques utilized in class (tone, language, etc)	AS: Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on what they think it means to have a personal connection to a poem. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Students will watch a video on establishing a personal connection to a poem. GP: As a class, read If by Rudyard Kipling. After reading the poem, ask students if they can connect to any part of the poem. Inform students that they will write a one page response about how they lived up to one of the lines in the poem. (eg. If there was a time when they were able to remain calm when people around them became upset).
	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Instructor will briefly review how to make and confirm predictions. Once the teacher has finished reviewing, introduce the poem Casey at the Bat . Ask students to write down any predictions they have about the poem. Once students have written at least three predictions, read the poem as a class.	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Instructor will review how to make a personal connection to a text. Ask students if they can think of any poems that they can relate to. Ask students if they can relate to the	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Instructor will briefly review how to make inferences. Afterwards, introduce "The Casey at the Bat" and then read the poem as a class. GP: After reading the poem, ask the	AS: Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, about how the key ideas from a text can be determined from a reading. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Instructor will lecture how to determine the	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will write a few sentences summarizing the various ways that a poem can be analyzed.	AS: Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on what they think it means to have a personal connection to a poem. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Students will watch a video on establishing a personal connection to a poem. GP: As a class, read If by Rudyard Kipling. After reading the poem, ask

GP: Guided Practice (We do)	GP: After reading the poem, ask students to share some of the predictions they made and if any of their predictions came true.	characters and events of Casey at the Bat. have students write a five paragraph essay explaining a personal connection to the characters or events of Casey at the Bat.	students what they think the poem was about. Ask them to support their reasons. Inform students that, using inferences from the poem, they are to write a one page write up on what they think happens during the ""Casey at the Bat".	main ideas from a text. GP: As a class, have the students read "Casey at the Bat". As students read the play, have them write a summary , at least a paragraph in length.	GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will pick one of the poems they read during the poetry unit, and will write a five paragraph essay analyzing the poem. Note: Students should include all of the analysis techniques utilized in class (tone, language, etc)	students if they can connect to any part of the poem. Inform students that they will write a one page response about how they lived up to one of the lines in the poem. (eg. If there was a time when they were able to remain calm when people around them became upset).
Independent Practice / Homework		Students will complete their one page write up.	Students will complete their one page write up.	Students will complete their paragraphs.	Independent Practice/ Homework	Students will complete their one page write up.

Lesson Close	Vocational	Education	Spiritual	Health	Cultural	Social
What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Educational? Social? Cultural? Financial? Health? Vocational? Spiritual?	Not everyone finds fulfillment at work. Some people, however, are motivated by their lack of fulfillment to aspire for bigger and better things. Some people might try to find fulfillment at work by aspiring to create the next economy or industry changing businesses like Facebook or Uber. Many of the people who have aspired to create these industries started out with a simple lack of fulfillment with their jobs and used that lack of fulfillment as a motivational tool. How can you find fulfillment at work as a tool for innovation? Financial Your money can be used for all sorts of things you can pay for goods and services, getting help keeps a roof over your head and it can be used to help others. One of the ways that finances can be used to help others is true the funding of charities and non-profits. While you might be motivated to donate to charities and nonprofits, it is often difficult to persuade others to use their money for good by donating to nonprofits or charities. How can you use your finances to help persuade people to use their money for good? Vocational While you are in school, you will learn a wide	Competency helps determine how skilled you are at performing a certain task and is measured in a variety of ways. In the workforce, you might be assessed in an interview or your resume. But what about education? What is educational competency? Vocational When you pick a vocation, you will inevitably end up in an entry level position in that field. However, there are other entry level positions you can hold including those that are not in your field. What are some entry level jobs you can start holding? Spiritual Spirituality can help us in all sorts of situations. It can provide comfort when times are difficult, it can help us navigate to options in our life, and it can help us determine proper courses of action. Many people, however,	Thanks to globalization, the culture of each country can be found around the world. Many of the major elements of Latin American culture, such as sports, foods, and art draw inspiration have spread around the world. Just as cultural norms have been diffused, so have values-including hope. Wherever people in the world can be found, people carry with them a sense of hope-a belief that things can and will change. What do you think it means to have hope? Cultural Thanks to cultural diffusion and globalization, people have access to their cultural interests anywhere in the world. Wherever people move around the world, they can often find people who share their interests, such as a fan club. Think about your interests, how can you use them to form a community?	As you go through life, it is inevitable that you will have to make sacrifices-whether it's giving up eating certain foods or giving up certain activities. However, many people don't realize that making a sacrifice is often done to improve your health. What does it mean to make sacrifices to improve your health? Vocational Many inventions were discovered or invented by accident however some inventions were made by people who felt that it was their personal mission to improve the world. Similarly, many people pick a career based on what they perceive their personal mission to be. Thinking about your own mission, how can you figure out what your personal mission is?	Since many people don't live in crowded or urban areas, many people have to rely on social media and the internet in order to create a sense of community. What is a community? Educational Just as there are apps for all sorts of interests, there are learning styles that rely on a variety of ways to learn information-reading, writing, listening, and doing. Many educators would say that discovering your learning style will make you a better student as once you know your learning style, it will help you determine the easiest way for you to learn and retain information, which in turn will help you become not only a better student, but more successful in life. How can you learn what your learning style is?	Making new friends requires a certain degree of openness- you have to be willing to share details about your own life so that other people can get to know you. However, you have to be careful not to disclose too much information as you might make some people uncomfortable. Knowing that it requires a certain degree of balance, what does it mean to be open? Cultural We live in a multicultural society. Modern Texas, for example, contains influences from Spanish, Mexican, German, Indigenous, and a wide variety of other cultures. Since we live in a multicultural society, people tend to think about culture in terms of food, clothing, religion or other such markers. However, multiculturalism is broader than this and can be found in uncommon ways.. What are some uncommon ways people of different cultures in your neighborhood intersect? Spiritual Everyone enjoys success once in a while. When people tend to have a lot of successes in a row, they tend to feel pretty good about themselves, which occasionally can cause them to become

	variety of tools and skills to help you with your career. However, one of the most important skills you will use while you're at work cannot be taught and must be developed entirely by you- a good work ethic. Having a strong work ethic is one of the most important skills you will use in your career. Having a strong work ethic is important as it can help you get a promotion at work and how do you develop a strong work ethic?	use their spirituality to help them with their self-control. Self-control is what helps prevent us from engaging in behavior that can have a negative impact on ourselves and the people around us. Think about your self-control. How can you use your spirituality to help guide your self control? How can you use your spirituality to develop self control?	Vocational As economies change, many jobs no longer rely on the traditional 9-5 hour work day. Consequently, many people find themselves doing their job outside of normal work hours such as answering emails and telephone calls at night. While it is important you do your job, they can be just as important to maintain a healthy work-life balance and not become overly dedicated to your job at the expense of your friends, family, and hobbies. What can you do to make sure you don't become over dedicated to your work?	Educational Being in school is boring and nobody really likes doing homework. However, what many people do not realize until they're older, is that the purpose of doing homework is to help you develop skills that you can use not just in school, but outside of school as well. Many people don't realize they can use their educational skills to help further their own hobbies. For example, working on your reading comprehension skills can help me to help you enjoy all sorts of media, comic books, movies, TV shows and other platforms that tell a story. Think about your own hobbies, How can you develop your educational skills through your hobbies?	Vocational With the technology we have available to us, we can undo just about anything thank you from helping to helping us find a new job. So many people don't realize that their applications can be used to help Strengthen our work. How can you use an application to help strengthen your work ethic?	arrogant and prideful. Being arrogant and prideful, in turn, can have unforeseen consequences such as a sudden reversal of your fortunes. Consequently, with great successes you should always strive to remain humble. How can you increase your humility?
--	--	---	---	---	---	--

