

Lecturer's name:		Date:
Course: ELA 7		Duration:
Unit: 2B (Drama)		TEKS:
	7.1C	• 7.2A	• 7.2B	• 7.2C	• 7.5A	• 7.5B
Lesson objectives:	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to give an organized presentation with a specific stance and position, employing eye contact, speaking rate, volume, enunciation, natural gestures, and conventions of language to communicate ideas effectively. Students will use this information to present a critique of a one act play of their choice.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to use print or digital resources to determine the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of a word. Students will use this information to look up the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of words from a one act play of their choosing.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to use context within or beyond a paragraph to clarify the meaning of unfamiliar or ambiguous words. Students will use this information to create a presentation on one of the ways context clues can be used.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to determine the meaning and usage of grade-level academic English words derived from Greek and Latin roots. Students will use this information to create a quizlet.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to establish a purpose for reading assigned and self-selected texts. Students will use this information to create a PSA about the importance of reading dramatic works .	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to generate questions about text before, during, and after reading to deepen understanding and gain information. Students will use this information to generate questions before, during and after reading Twelfth Night.
Essential Questions:	Essential Questions: What are some important tools to give an effective presentation?	Essential Questions: How can you discover the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of words?	How can you use context clues to help you determine the meaning of a word?	What commonly used words have Greek and Latin roots? How can you identify Greek and Roman roots?	Why is it important to read dramatic works? What different genres can be found in dramatic works?	What are some questions you can generate before reading Twelfth Night ? What are some questions you can generate while reading Twelfth Night ?

						What are some questions you can generate after reading Twelfth Night ?
LYS Methodology Be (Character/Values/Principles) Know (What resources are available to the student/ How can they use them) - Do (Execute with Excellence) -	LYS Methodology Be (Character/Values/Principles) - What do you think identity has to do with the art that you consume? Know (What resources are available to the student/ How can they use them) - What is your personal mission? Do (Execute with Excellence) -How can you use the media you consume to Identify connections between your cultural background and the cultural background of others?	Be: How can you use your spirituality to be more understanding of others? Know: What sort of factors can influence the market? Do: How can you use your spirituality to develop your narrative?	Be: How can you be resourceful with your finances? Know: What are some ways you can bring your health back into balance? Do: How can you be resourceful at work?	Be: What does it mean to be connected with somebody? Know: What are some of the ways that people of various faiths pray? Do: Why is it important to take responsibility for your actions at work?	Be: What do you think it means to be assertive about your health? Know: How do you know if you can trust someone? Do: How can you use your spirituality to help remain humble?	Be: What does it mean to take pride in your work? Know: What are some small acts of self care you can undertake to prevent yourself from getting overwhelmed on bad days? Do: What are some simple acts of self care you can do during the day?
Resources (Include Technology):	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Dictionary Skills https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=graMoiXc_gE&ab_channel=LearnwithSocrates	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Reading Comprehension 8 Types of Context Clues to Be a Better Reader https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1hmJZh74qFw Activity Presentation Software	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Greek and Latin Roots Intro https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gVDITVFzRyY&ab_channel=KealyJaynes Activity Quizlet.com (students will have to create a login)	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Activity Audio or Video recording app (Phone laptop, tablet, etc)	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Asking Questions Before, During, and After Reading https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tKsWRm1NQzo&ab_channel=JenniferJohnson “Twelfth Night” by William Shakespeare http://shakespeare.mit.edu/twelfth_night/full.html

			(PowerPoint, Google Slides, etc)			Activity Word Processor
Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will give a TEDTalk on their independent reading. M: Modeling (I do) GP: Guided Practice (We do)	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will give a TEDTalk on their independent reading.	AS: Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner how students can use print or digital resources to determine the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of a word. M: Students will watch a video on how to determine the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of a word. GP: Have students read a one act play of their choosing. As they read the one act play, have students create a list of unfamiliar words. Once they have finished the play, have them look up the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and	AS: Students will use the designated form of technology available to them to discuss/communicate for up to 10 minutes with a partner how they can use information in a text to figure out the meaning of unfamiliar words. M: Students will watch a video on context clues. GP: Ask students how they might explain context clues to a student younger than them. Inform students that they are to create a presentation designed to educate students in the grades below them on how to use context clues.	AS: Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, about Greek and Roman roots they are familiar with. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Students will watch a video on Greek and Roman roots. GP: Give students the list of Greek and Latin roots. Split students into groups of 2 or three and assign each group a page from the list of Greek and Latin roots. From there, each group will create a quizlet based on their assigned list of words. The quizlet should contain the root, some english words that use the roots, and the definition of the root.	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Instructor will ask the students to share the names of one act plays and playwrights they are familiar with. Once students have shared their responses, ask them if they think it is important to read dramatic works. Then, have students watch a TEDTalk on why it is important to read dramatic works. GP: Ask students why they think it is important for people to read dramatic works. Inform students that they are to create a 30 second PSA explaining why it is important for people to read dramatic works.	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Students will watch a video on how to ask questions before, during, and after reading. GP: Introduce the one act play "Twelfth Night". Before the class begins reading, have the students write down a minimum of three questions they have about the play. Then have the students read the play as a class. As the students read the play, have them write down at least three questions. Once the class has finished the play, have the students write down at least three questions they still have.

		part of speech of the words on their list.
Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) M: Modeling (I do) GP: Guided Practice (We do)	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will give a TEDTalk on their independent reading.	AS: Students will discuss with a partner how students can use print or digital resources to determine the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of a word. M: Instructor will lecture on how to determine the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of a word. GP: Have students read a one act play of their choosing. As they read the one act play, have students create a list of unfamiliar words. Once they have finished the play, have them look up the meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, word origin, and part of speech of the words on their list.	AS: Students will discuss with a partner how they can use information in a text to figure out the meaning of unfamiliar words. M: Instructor will lecture on context clues. GP: Ask students how they might explain context clues to a student younger than them. Inform students that they are to create a presentation designed to educate students in the grades below them on how to use context clues.	AS: Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, about Greek and Roman roots they are familiar with. M: Students will watch a video on Greek and Roman roots. GP: Give students the list of Greek and Latin roots. Split students into groups of 2 or three and assign each group a page from the list of Greek and Latin roots. From there, each group will create a quizlet based on their assigned list of words. The quizlet should contain the root, some english words that use the roots, and the definition of the root.	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Instructor will ask the students to share the names of one act plays and playwrights they are familiar with. Once students have shared their responses, ask them if they think it is important to read dramatic works. Then, have students watch a TEDTalk on why it is important to read dramatic works. GP: Ask students why they think it is important for people to read dramatic works. Inform students that they are to create a 30 second PSA explaining why it is important for people to read dramatic works.	AS: Students will read quietly for up to 10 minutes. M: Instructor will review how to ask questions before, during, and after reading. GP: Introduce play "Twelfth Night". Before the class begins reading, have the students write down a minimum of three questions they have about the play. Then have the students read the play as a class. As the students read the play, have them write down at least three questions. Once the class has finished the play, have the students write down at least three questions they still have.
Independent Practice /		Students will complete their word lists.	Students will complete their presentation.	Students will complete their quizlet.	Students will complete their PSA.	Students will look up the answers to their questions.

Homework
----------	--	--	--	--	--	--

Lesson Close	Lesson Close	Lesson Close	Financial	Cultural	Health	Vocational
What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of:	What is the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of:	What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of:	Once you enter the workforce, you will need to take steps to manage your money.	You can form connections with someone based on just about anything. One of the easier ways to form a connection with somebody is based on a cultural background.	Maintaining your health involves a wide variety of techniques from eating right to managing your stress. It also requires a certain degree of assertiveness, particularly about avoiding behaviors that can harm your health. What do you think it means to be assertive about your health?	Many of the skills you rely on at work you develop either through your education or on-the-job training. 1 scale that can only come through experience, is taking pride in your work. What does it mean to take pride in your work?
Educational? Social? Cultural? Financial? Health? Vocational? Spiritual?	Cultural Each one of us has our own unique identity determined by the activities we participate in and the art that we consume. What do you think identity has to do with the art that you consume? Vocational The people who produce art often view creating art as their personal mission in life. You, however, might have a different personal mission in life. What is your personal mission?	Spiritual Today, our spirituality can help us with many different areas in our lives, particularly in areas where we struggle. Many people struggle with being accepting of others who are different from ourselves. How can you use your spirituality to be more understanding of others? Financial Our financial markets are influenced by a wide variety of factors from global events to a company underselling a major product. If you decide to get involved with the market, it is important to know what sort of factors can influence the market so you can make smart decisions. How	Sometimes you might need to be resourceful with making your money or turning your money into more money. How can you be resourceful with your money? Health Some illnesses are caused by bacteria or viruses, while others are a product of diet or human behavior-often by living an unhealthy life and not keeping your health in balance. If your health is in danger because of unhealthy habits, what do you think are some steps you can take to bring your health back under control? Vocational Life can still be unpredictable- at any time you can be thrown a curveball that requires you to be resourceful in order to succeed. While this doesn't mean you constantly	Forming a connection with someone from the same cultural background is easy, but how can you form a connection with someone from a different cultural background? Spiritual Religions that are part of a larger faith, such as the various branches of Christianity or Islam, may pray in a similar manner. How can you learn about how people of various faiths pray? Once you learn about how other faiths pray, how can you use that information to build inner-spiritual connections? Vocational	Social Trust is not an easy thing to come by and can be very delicate. It is also fundamentally written into the social fabric of our society. However, like many other sets of rules determining social interaction, there is no written procedure that determines how and if we should or can trust someone. How do you know if you can trust someone? Spiritual Humility is not an easy task for	Health Everyone has bad days. Sometimes when people have bad days, lots of things pile up and people quickly feel ground down. When you have a bad day, partake in small acts of self care to help you get through the day. (These acts can be as simple as talking to a friend or meditating)(What are some small acts of self care you can develop? Health When some people think of self care, they might think big gestures-they might think of going to the spa or going on vacation. However in our day-to-day lives there's not always time to engage in Acts of self-care. Consequently we have to develop ways to carry out simple acts of self care. What are some simple acts of self care you can do during the day?

		can you learn what sort of factors can influence the market? Spiritual We all have our own personal narratives, we are the main character of our own sagas. The unfolding of our personal narratives is determined by a wide variety of factors, including our spirituality. How can you use your spirituality to develop your narrative?	have to be on edge, you should be able to adapt to any challenge that comes your way. This means you need to be able to be resourceful. Think about the vocation you are interested in pursuing? What sort of resourcefulness do you think the people in that field rely on?	Today, while people studying Greek and Latin are more often than not working very safe jobs, they still have to face responsibility for their actions. When you reach the workforce, you might make mistakes and face responsibility for your actions. However, It is not always easy to take responsibility for your actions at work- afterall, nobody likes being told about their mistakes. Why do you think it is important to take responsibility for your work? Is it possible to take responsibility for your work while still standing up for yourself? How do you think not taking responsibility for your work can hurt you?	everybody, especially for those for whom success comes easy. Celebrating a major success or accomplishment does not mean that you lack humility, rather, humility is seen as an overabundance of pride in your accomplishment and your successes. Many people rely on a variety of techniques to help them remain humble, including their spirituality. How can you use your spirituality to help remain humble?
--	--	--	---	---	---	--

