

Lecturer's name:		Date:
Course: ELA 7		Duration:
Unit: 2B (Drama)		TEKS:
	• 7.6F 1	• 7.6H,	• 7.7A, 6.	• 6.7B,	7.7C	• 7.7D
Lesson objectives:	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to respond with new vocabulary. Students will use this information to write a five paragraph essay about a poem using vocabulary they learned while reading the poem.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to respond orally with appropriate register, vocabulary, tone, and voice. Students will use this information to recite a scene from a play in a dramatic fashion.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to infer multiple themes within and across texts using text evidence. Students will use this information to create a pecha kucha on the development of a theme in a Twelfth Night .	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to analyze how the characters' internal and external responses develop the plot. Students will use this information to rewrite a scene from Twelfth Night by changing the conflict.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to analyze plot elements, including rising action, climax, falling action, resolution, and non-linear elements such as flashback. Students will use this information to write a non-linear play.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to analyze how the setting, including historical and cultural settings, influences character and plot development. Students will use this information to rewrite Twelfth Night . by changing the setting.
Essential Questions:	Why is it important to use vocabulary learned while reading a poem?	How can we make dramatic readings of a play interesting?	How do dramatists use characters and events to develop themes?	How do character interaction influence the events and conflict of a dramatic work?	How do poets develop non-linear plots in drama?	How does the setting of a dramatic work influence the values and beliefs of the characters?
LYS Methodology Be (Character/Values/Prior)	Be: What is openness? Know: What are some uncommon ways people of different cultures in your neighborhood intersect?	Be: How can you use your finances to help others? Know: How can you ask for help?	Be: Why is it important to be able to be understanding of other people? Know: What are Market Forces?	Be: How can you be assertive and take care of your own health? Know:	Be: How do you live with hope? Know: What are your options after High School?	Be: What does it mean to make sacrifices when it comes to your health? Know: What are some little known ways you can get exercise?

Principles) Know (What resources are available to the student / How can they use them) - Do (Execute with Excellence) -	Do: How can you increase your humility?	Do: How can you maintain self control?	Do: How do you do work with pride?	How do you find fulfillment at work? Do: What steps can you take to monitor and take charge of your well-being?	Do: What can you do to promote your educational independence?	Do: What do you aspire to be socially?
Resources (Include Technology):	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Activity If by Rudyard Kipling https://www.poetryfoundation.org/poems/46473/if--- Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Warm Up Twelfth Night; Viola and Olivia https://youtu.be/iRIXqdM10FQ Activity Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare http://shakespeare.mit.edu/romeo_juliet/full.html	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Character and Theme Development https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8hgxGVqqI9I Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare http://shakespeare.mit.edu/twelfth_night/full.html Activity Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Character actions in stories Reading Khan Academy https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tW9TG22U3Go&t=157s Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare http://shakespeare.mit.edu/twelfth_night/full.html Activity Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Linear and Non Linear Plot https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=x_6AgK4cOJ8&t=818s Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare http://shakespeare.mit.edu/twelfth_night/full.html Activity Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction How Setting Affects Characters Lesson https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lqqfgqFcmGA Twelfth Night by William Shakespeare http://shakespeare.mit.edu/twelfth_night/full.html Activity Word Processor

Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) M: Modeling (I do) GP: Guided Practice (We do)	AS: Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on what they think it means to have a personal connection to a poem. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. GP: As a class, read If by Rudyard Kipling. As students read the poem, have them write down words and phrases used in the poem.. After reading the poem, ask students if any words or phrases from the poem stuck out to them. Inform students that using phrases and words from the poem, they will write a one page essay on how one of the phrases or scenarios described in the poem, (eg. If there was a time when they were able to remain calm when people around them became upset).	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will watch the 'Love at First Sight' scene from Twelfth Night . Have students write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on how watching the actors in the scene perform the scene brings Shakespeare's words to life. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Split students into groups. Assign each group a scene from Twelfth Night . Have them memorize the lines in the scene and put on a performance for their classmates.	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on what they think is the relationship between characters and the theme of a story. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch a video on the relationship between characters and theme. GP: Guided Practice (We do) As a class, students will read Twelfth Night . After reading the play, students will write a one page explaining the between the characters in and the themes of the play.	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on how characters' motivations and behaviors influence events and resolution of the conflict in a dramatic work . Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch a video on how characters' motivations and behaviors influence events and resolution of the conflict in a story. GP: Guided Practice (We do) As a class, students will read Twelfth Night . After reading the play, students will write a one page write up exploring how characters' motivations and behaviors influence events and resolution	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on how non-linear plots can influence the structure of a play. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch a video on linear and non-linear plots. GP: Guided Practice (We do) As a class, students will read Twelfth Night . Afterwards, split the students into groups. Ask the groups how they think the play would be different if it was told in a non-linear fashion. Inform each group that they are to rewrite a scene to retell the play	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on how they think the setting of a dramatic work influences the values and beliefs of characters. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch a video on how the setting of a story influences the values and beliefs of a dramatic work. GP: Guided Practice (We do) As a class, students will read Twelfth Night. After reading, students will complete a one page write up exploring how the setting of the play influences the values and beliefs of a dramatic work.
--	---	---	---	--	--	---

				of the conflict in the play.	in a nonlinear fashion.
Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) M: Modeling (I do) GP: Guided Practice (We do)	AS: Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on what they think it means to have a personal connection to a poem. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. GP: As a class, read If by Rudyard Kipling. As students read the poem, have them write down words and phrases used in the poem.. After reading the poem, ask students if any words or phrases from the poem stuck out to them. Inform students that using phrases and words from the poem, they will write a one page essay on how one of the phrases or scenarios described in the poem, (eg. If there was a time when they were able to remain calm when people around them became upset).	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will watch the 'Love at First Sight' scene from Twelfth Night . Have students write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on how watching the actors in the scene perform the scene brings Shakespeare's words to life. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Split students into groups. Assign each group a scene from Twelfth Night . Have them memorize the lines in the scene and put on a performance for their classmates.	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on what they think is the relationship between characters and the theme of a story. M: Modeling (I do) Instructor will lecture on the relationship between characters and theme. GP: Guided Practice (We do) As a class, students will read Twelfth Night . After reading the play, students will write a one page essay exploring the relationship between the characters in and the themes of the play.	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on how characters' motivations and behaviors influence events and resolution of the conflict in a dramatic work . M: Modeling (I do) Instructor will lecture on how characters' motivations and behaviors influence events and resolution of the conflict in a story. As a class, students will read Twelfth Night . GP: Guided Practice (We do) As a class, students will read Twelfth Night . After reading the play, students will write a one page essay exploring how characters'	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on how non-linear plots can influence the structure of a play. M: Modeling (I do) Instructor will lecture on linear and non-linear plots. As a class, students will read Twelfth Night . GP: Guided Practice (We do) As a class, students will read Twelfth Night . Afterwards, split the students into groups. Ask the groups how they think the polay would be different if it was told in a non-linear fashion. Inform each group that they are to	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on how they think the setting of a dramatic work influences the values and beliefs of characters. M: Modeling (I do) Instructor will lecture on how the setting of a story influences the values and beliefs of a dramatic work. GP: Guided Practice (We do) As a class, students will read Twelfth Night . After reading, students will complete a one page write up exploring how the setting of the play influences the values and beliefs of a dramatic work.

				motivations and behaviors influence events and resolution of the conflict in the play.	rewrite a scene to retell the play in a nonlinear fashion.
Independent Practice/ Homework	Students will complete their one page write up.	Independent Practice/ Homework Students will memorize their lines.	Independent Practice/ Homework Students will complete their essay.	Independent Practice/ Homework Students will complete their essay.	Independent Practice/ Homework Students will complete their scene rewrite.	Independent Practice/ Homework Students will complete their write up.
Lesson Close What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Educational? Social? Cultural? Financial? Health? Vocational? Spiritual?	Social Making new friends requires a certain degree of openness- you have to be willing to share details about your own life so that other people can get to know you. However, you have to be careful not to disclose too much information as you might make some people uncomfortable. Knowing that it requires a certain degree of balance, what does it mean to be open? Cultural We live in a multicultural society. Modern Texas, for example, contains influences from Spanish, Mexican, German, Indeginious, and a wide variety of other cultures. Since we live in a multicultural society, people tend to think about culture in terms of food, clothing, religion or other such markers. However, multiculturalism is broader than this and can be found in uncommon ways.. What are some uncommon ways people of different cultures in your neighborhood intersect?	Lesson Close What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Financial One of the less common uses of informational texts are position papers created by the government. In fact, many papers are prepared to help inform viewers on the positions of politicians and hope that their campaigns will receive donations. Regardless, politicians around the world have to run on money that is donated by people who believe in their cause. What sort	Lesson Close What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Social Our world is made up of people from a very wide variety of backgrounds including some that you may not be readily familiar with. Why do you think it's important to be understanding of other people from different backgrounds? Financial As you grow older and begin looking towards joining the workforce, it is important to start researching the various market forces that influence your possible career	Lesson Close What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Health Reading and writing informative texts can give people a new lease on life and can be a healthy way of dealing with difficult subjects. However, reading and writing informative texts can also help you be assertive about your health. What are some other ways you can be assertive when it comes to taking control of your own health? Vocational-	Lesson Close What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Spiritual In our daily lives, we face all sorts of threats and challenges. Sometimes they can make us feel overwhelmed and feel like there is no hope for the future. In situations like this, what are some steps you can take to maintain hope for the future? Vocational After high school, you have a variety of options available to you - you can enter the workforce, you can join the military or you	Lesson Close What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Health As we go through life we will face occasions requiring us to make a sacrifice-whether its time, money, or even health. Although you are in middle school, that doesn't mean you can't make sacrifices to your health. What does it mean to make sacrifices when it comes to your health? Health With the advent of modern technology, many people spend less time outdoors than they used to, which inturn is impacting the health of ourselves and the people around us. What are some ways you can stay active and get exercise during school? Social Aspirations are not exclusive to school! You

	Spiritual Everyone enjoys success once in a while. When people tend to have a lot of successes in a row, they tend to feel pretty good about themselves, which occasionally can cause them to become arrogant and prideful. Being arrogant and prideful, in turn, can have unforeseen consequences such as a sudden reversal of your fortunes. Consequently, with great successes you should always strive to remain humble. How can you increase your humility?	of candidates do you believe in and how can you be financially helpful towards their campaigns? Educational Sometimes in school you may come across content that you don't fully understand. You might be too embarrassed to ask your teacher for help. Don't be! Even authors ask their colleagues for help. There are a multitude of ways to ask your teacher for help, you can raise your hand in class or you can approach them afterwards and tell them you are having trouble understanding. What do you think are some other ways you can ask for help? Spiritual Sometimes you might find yourself agitated by people or other things around you. You might find yourself wanting to yell or lash out or react in a negative manner. Being in such a situation requires	choices. What seems like a small factor now, can turn into a large factor by the time you enter the workforce. What are market forces and how might they influence your career choices? Vocational Every job is important and presents people with an opportunity to take pride in their work. What do you think it means to take pride in your work?	Sometimes school can be boring. You might find yourself working in a job that seems boring. Despite this, a boring job can still be fulfilling, just as a boring class can be fulfilling. What steps can you take to find fulfillment at school and work? Health When you feel unwell in school or at home, you can tell the school nurse or your parents and they can give you medicine. As you grow older however, you will need to rely on yourself to take charge of your own well-being. Even though you are young, what are some steps you can take now, to take charge of your own well-being even if you do not feel sick?	can go to higher education. In order to figure out the best course of action for you, think about what it is you would be interested in doing as a career and then start looking into what path you will have to take once you have finished High School. Educational In school, there is often not enough time to go into further detail on a topic, so you might have to pursue further details on your own. If there is a particular topic you would like to learn more details about, ask your teacher for resources and continue your studies on your own. What are some topics you might want to learn about on your own?	can aspire to do things in your social circle as well. You can aspire to have more friends, you can aspire to be the president of a club or the captain of a sports team. What do you aspire to be when it comes to social interactions?
--	--	--	--	---	--	---

		a degree of self-control and not losing your cool. What are some ways you can maintain your self control in stressful situations?
--	--	---	--	--	--	--