

Lecturer's name:		Date:
Course: ELA 9		Duration:
Unit: 2		TEKS:
	• ELA.9.R.1.1:	• ELA.9.R.1.2:	• ELA.9.R.2.1:	• ELA.9.R.2.2:	ELA.9.R.2.3:	• ELA.9.R.3.1
Lesson objectives:	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to explain how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text. Students will use this information to write an argumentative essay.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to analyze universal themes and their development throughout a literary text. Students will use this information to analyze a short story.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to analyze how multiple text structures and/or features convey a purpose and/or meaning in texts. Students will use this information to analyze a short story.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to evaluate the support an author uses to develop the central idea(s) throughout a text. Students will use this information to analyze a short story.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to analyze how an author establishes and achieves purpose(s) through rhetorical appeals and/or figurative language. Students will use this information to analyze a short story.	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to explain how figurative language creates mood in text(s). Students will use this information to analyze a short story.
Essential Questions:	Essential Questions: How do key elements enhance a story? How do key elements add layers to a story?	Essential Questions: What are the universal themes found in short stories?	Essential Questions: How do text structures convey meaning in a story?	Essential Questions: How do authors develop the central idea of a story through a text?	Essential Questions: How do authors use rhetorical appeals to establish purpose? How do authors use figurative language in short stories?	Essential Questions: How does figurative language creates mood in a short story?

LYS Methodology Be (Character/Values/Principles) Know (What resources are available to the student / How can they use them) - Do (Execute with Excellence) -	Be: How do you take care of yourself? Know: What does it mean to be culturally enterprising? Do: How do you create spiritual aspirations?	Be: What does it mean to be financially generous? Know: What are entry level positions? Do: How do you develop competency at school?	Be: What does it mean to be understanding of others? Know: How can you prevent your vices from getting out of control? Do: How can you cooperate with people you don't like?	Be: How can you draw inspiration from the world around you? Know: What are the different types of degrees out there? Do: What is competency?	Be: How can you use your spirituality to be connected to the world around you? Know: What entry level positions exist in your field? Do: How can you develop your spiritual narrative?	LYS Methodology Be (Character/Values/Principles) - How can you change them to improve your competency when it comes to school (without adding more stress)? Know (What resources are available to the student/ How can they use them) - How do you know when you can trust somebody? Do (Execute with Excellence) - How can you help others develop their competency in school?
Resources (Include Technology):	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Literary Elements (Parts of a Story) - Video and Worksheet https://youtu.be/Uy5LU_3gUs4 The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell https://archive.org/download/TheMostDangerousGame_233/connell_richard_edward_1893_1949_most_dangerous_game.pdf Activity Word Processor	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Using Themes to Analyze Literature https://youtu.be/03Md3dAQN5M The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell https://archive.org/download/TheMostDangerousGame_233/connell_richard_edward_1893_1949_most_dangerous_game.pdf Activity	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Analyze the impact of structure on the meaning of a text https://youtu.be/klaY9NQwZEK The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell https://archive.org/download/TheMostDangerousGame_233/connell_richard_edward_1893_1949_most_dangerous_game.pdf Activity	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Finding the central idea and key supporting details in a text https://youtu.be/QIDU0nvOICk The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell https://archive.org/download/TheMostDangerousGame_233/connell_richard_edward_1893_1949_most_dangerous_game.pdf	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Determine the author's purpose by analyzing the use of rhetoric https://youtu.be/bRzCIGKHb7s Analyze author's use of figurative language https://youtu.be/L4eMGisT4j4 The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell https://archive.org/download/TheMostDangerousGame_233/connell_richard_edward_1893_1949_most_dangerous_game.pdf	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Analyze how an author develops mood https://youtu.be/IAC-mN_hKAM The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell https://archive.org/download/TheMostDangerousGame_233/connell_richard_edward_1893_1949_most_dangerous_game.pdf Activity Word Processor

		Word Processor	Word Processor	Activity Word Processor	Game_233/connell_richard_edward_1893_1949_most_dangerous_game.pdf Activity Word Processor
Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Instructor will lecture on literary elements. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss with a partner what literary elements are in the story. Have each pair share their ideas with the class. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will re-read The Most Dangerous and take notes in their copy of the story that focus on the literary elements utilized by the author.	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Instructor will lecture on literary elements. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss with a partner what literary elements are in the story. Have each pair share their ideas with the class. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will re-read The Most Dangerous and take notes in their copy of the story that focus on the literary elements utilized by the author.	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Instructor will lecture on universal themes found in literature. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss with a partner what themes are in the story. Have each pair share their ideas with the class. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will re-read The Most Dangerous and take notes in their copy of the story that focus on the universal	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Instructor will lecture on how to analyze the impact of structure on the meaning of a text. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss how the structure of the story impacts the meaning of the story. Have each pair share their ideas with the class. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will re-read The Most Dangerous and take notes in their copy of the story that focus on how	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Instructor will lecture on finding the central idea and key supporting details in a text. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss with a partner what the central idea of the story is as well as how the central idea is supported by parts of the text. Have each pair share their ideas with the class. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will re-read The Most Dangerous	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch videos on how to determine the author's purpose by analyzing the use of rhetoric and how to analyze an author's use of figurative language. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss with a partner the purpose of the story via the use of rhetoric and figurative language. Have each pair share their ideas with the class.	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Instructor will lecture on analyze how an author develops mood. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss with a partner how the author uses figurative language to develop the mood of the story. Have each pair share their ideas with the class. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will re-read The Most Dangerous and take notes in their copy of the story that focus on how the author uses figurative language to develop the mood of the story.

		themes of the story.	the structure of the story impacts the meaning of the story.	and take notes in their copy of the story that focus on what the central idea of the story is as well as how the central idea is supported by parts of the text.	GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will re-read The Most Dangerous and take notes in their copy of the story that focus on identifying the purpose of the story via the use of rhetoric and figurative language.
Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch a video on literary elements. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss with a partner what literary elements are in the story. Have each pair share their ideas with the class. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will re-read The Most Dangerous and take notes in their copy of the story that focus on the literary elements utilized by the author.	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch a video on literary elements. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss with a partner what literary elements are in the story. Have each pair share their ideas with the class. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will re-read The Most Dangerous and take notes in their copy of the story that focus on the literary elements utilized by the author.	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch a video on universal themes found in literature. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss with a partner what themes are in the story. Have each pair share their ideas with the class. GP: Guided Practice (We do)	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch a video on how to analyze the impact of structure on the meaning of a text. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss how the structure of the story impacts the meaning of the story. Have each pair share their ideas with the class.	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch a video on finding the central idea and key supporting details in a text. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss with a partner what the central idea of the story is as well as how the central idea is supported by parts of the text. Have each pair	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch videos on how to determine the author's purpose by analyzing the use of rhetoric and how to analyze an author's use of figurative language. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss with a partner the purpose of	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will read quietly for 10 minutes. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch a video on analyze how an author develops mood. As a class, students will read The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell. After reading the story, have the students discuss with a partner how the author uses figurative language to develop the mood of the story. Have each pair share their ideas with the class. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will re-read The Most Dangerous and take notes in their copy of the story that focus on how the author uses figurative language to develop the mood of the story.

[illegible]

Lesson Close	Lesson Close	Lesson Close	Lesson Close	Lesson Close	Lesson Close	Lesson Close
What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of:	What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Educational As a student, you might come across information that you may not be open to. However, it is important to keep an open mind about these things as it may make you a better person. What are some ways that you can make sure that you're tolerant when coming across new ideas in school? Social? Cultural? Spiritual Spiritual chanting is said to improve listening skills, heightened energy and more sensitivity towards others- all qualities that are important in being a good student (and person). They can be as simple as a single word or as complex as a mantra. What is a spiritual chant that you can use to improve yourself? Financial As you get older and enter the workforce, you will need to create a budget and learn how to stick with it. What are some ways you can learn how to stick to your budget?	What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Financial Sometimes you need to financially collaborate with others. If you were to start a business, you might have to find an investor who would be willing to give you money in exchange for some of your profits. Due to this, as you strike out into the business world, you will need to know how to be financially collaborative. What are some ways that you can be financially collaborative. Social Although you are in middle school, you are responsible for setting boundaries with other people. What are some boundaries you can set with others? Vocational	What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Health There are multiple factors and influences on our overall well being- mental, emotional, physical and others. Regulating these factors requires a degree of self care. Why do you think it is important to practice self care? What do you think happens if you don't take care of yourself? Cultural Cultural enterprise involves the performance of certain activity prevalent in artistic and cultural content, usually relating to the culture of a city, state, or nationality. It is often a way for people of one culture to share information about their culture with others in an	What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Financial Financial generosity helps people from all walks of life. Why do you think it is important to be financially generous? What are some ways you can be financially generous? Vocational Many celebrities and athletes go into their fields after years of refining entry level skills into world class skills (such as learning how to kick a ball versus how to kick a ball that is hard to block). Think about what you want to do with your life - what do you think are the entry level positions you need to take in your field before you can rise to your dream job? Educational	What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Vocational Every career field starts off in an entry level position in their field. Think about your career goals, what are some entry level positions for you in your field? Spiritual Your spiritual narrative consists of what your life is about and what gives it meaning. Right now your narrative is just beginning, but just because it's just beginning doesn't mean you can't plan ahead. How can you develop your spiritual narrative?	What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of: Education Being competent in school is about more than learning the material just to take a test. Learning the material just to take a test won't actually help you become competent at school, it will just add stress to your life. Think about your study habits, how can you change them to improve your competency when it comes to school (without adding more stress)? Social Most people would define trust as believing in the character or truth of someone or being able to place your confidence in someone. Having a textbook definition of something is nice, but how do you actually know when you can trust somebody? Education Writing information texts requires a great deal of competency as a writer. However, just like all fields, competency and the skills necessary to perform well in your chosen field begin in school. However, while competency in some areas might come easily

		In life, you will encounter moments where you don't feel motivated. However, in the workforce a lack of motivation can have major consequences, including losing your job! What are some ways you can remain driven at work?	informational or educational setting. What are some small ways you can create cultural enterprises? Spiritual Most people rely on a variety of methods to guide them through life, including their spirituality. Before you can set out on this journey you need to set spiritual aspirations. What do you think are some spiritual aspirations you can set?	The purpose of school is to help you develop the skills you need for the workplace, including establishing core competency. What are some things you can do to increase your competency in school?		to you, you might struggle in others. If you are competent in a subject but notice others are struggling, what can you do to assist them?
--	--	---	---	---	--	--