

Lecturer's name:		Date:
Course: ELA 7		Duration:
Unit: 8		TEKS: Student Expectation - E1.5I: Reflect on and adjust responses when valid evidence warrants.
Lesson objectives:	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to reflect on and adjust responses when valid evidence warrants. Students will use this information to reflect on their analysis of a short story.
Essential Questions:	Essential Questions: Once you synthesize information from a text, how can you use that information to aid your understanding?
LYS Methodology Be (Character/Values/Principles) - Know (What resources are available to the student/ How can they use them) - Do (Execute with Excellence) -	LYS Methodology Be (Character/Values/Principles) - What does it mean to be open minded when it comes to your education? Know (What resources are available to the student/ How can they use them) - How can you adapt your skills into a vocation? Do (Execute with Excellence) - How can you boost the self esteem of others?
Resources(Include Technology):	Lesson Wide Laptop Projector Instruction Discover How to Write a Counterclaim Paragraph & Defend with Rebuttal https://youtu.be/G2YuUCKxnK8 Activity

	Word Processor
Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) M: Modeling (I do) GP: Guided Practice (We do)	Instructional Input - Asynchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on how they should react when presented with information that is different from their initial idea. Students will upload their answers to the LMS. M: Modeling (I do) Students will watch a video on writing a counterclaim paragraph and defending paragraph GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will switch papers with someone who had a different argument than they did. After switching papers and reading their classmate's papers, each student will write a half to full page counterclaim. Once each student has been given a counterclaim, each student will write a rebuttal of equal length.
Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) M: Modeling (I do) GP: Guided Practice (We do)	Instructional Input - Synchronous AS: Anticipatory Set (Introduction) Students will write a few sentences, up to a paragraph, on how they should react when presented with information that is different from their initial idea. M: Modeling (I do) Instructor will lecture on how to write a counterclaim paragraph and defending paragraph. GP: Guided Practice (We do) Students will switch papers with someone who had a different argument than they did. After switching papers and reading their classmate's papers, each student will write a half to full page counterclaim. Once each student has been given a counterclaim, each student will write a rebuttal of equal length.
Independent Practice/ Homework	Independent Practice/ Homework Students will complete their rebuttal.

Lesson Close	Lesson Close
What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of:	What is the answer to the essential question, and why does it matter to me in terms of:
Educational?	Educational What does it mean to be open minded when it comes to your education?
Social?
Cultural?
Financial?	Vocational Making a living in the 21st Century requires a certain degree of adaptability, given the often severe global economic issues. However, many of the people when jobs are scarce make a living by adapting their natural skills into a vocation. Think about your natural skills, maybe you're charismatic, or are athletic, or have strong analytic skills. How can you adapt your skills into a vocation?
Health?
Vocational?
Spiritual?	Social Being a member of a community requires all members of that community to work together and contribute as best they can. However, many people may not feel as good about themselves as others and might consequently have low levels of self esteem. While everyone suffers from low levels of self esteem at some point, it is important that self esteem is easy to boost in small levels by engaging in small actions such as sitting with someone who is alone or being nice to someone who looks unhappy. How can you boost the self esteem of others?